

Francis Bacon Conference
Spring 2014

Testimonies: States of Mind and States of the Body in the Early Modern Period

Friday 9 May 2014 (Caltech, Dabney Hall Treasure Room)

- 9:30 AM Coffee
- 10:00 AM James Everest, University College, London
Francis Bacon's Body: Experiments in the Prolongation of Life
- 11:00 AM Coffee
- 11:30 AM Lisa Jardine, University College, London
States of Mind and States of Body in the early records of the Royal Society
- 12:30 PM Lunch
- 1:30 PM Felicity Henderson, University of Exeter
Robert Hooke and the philosophical body
- 2:30 PM Coffee
- 3:00 PM Peter Anstey, University of Sydney
Lockean Self-Diagnosis
- 4:00 PM Rob Iliffe, University of Sussex
Newton, self-control, and the nature of scientific enquiry

Saturday 10 May 2014 (Caltech, Treasure Room)

- 8:30 AM Coffee
- 9:00 AM Karin Ekholm, St. John's Annapolis
Love and Desire in Harvey's Account of Animal Generation
- 10:00 AM Coffee break

- 10:30 AM Evan Ragland, University of Alabama in Huntsville
Chymistry and Temperance: Calming the Passions of the Chymical Person in the Low Countries
- 11:30 AM Gideon Manning, Caltech
Directing the Mind While Preserving the Body: Tschirnhaus' Medicina Mentis et Corporis
- 12:30 PM Lunch
- 1:30 PM Sarah Hutton, Aberystwyth University
Making sense of pain: thinking and health in the correspondence of Anne Conway and her circle
- 2:30 PM Coffee
- 3:00 PM Anita Guerrini, Oregon State
Animal Bodies and Human Minds: Health and the Analogy of Nature
- 4:00 PM Paula Findlen, Stanford University
Laura Bassi and Maria Gaetana Agnesi: Scientific Bodies and Female Minds in Eighteenth-Century Italy